PRETTY IN PAINESVILLE

The City of Painesville, in association with The Painesville Community Improvement Corporation, would like to recognize residents and businesses in The City who contribute to the beauty of Painesville by taking pride in their home's or business's landscaping and/or exterior renovation improvements.

One nominated home per voting ward and one business will be selected as a winner. The winner will have a sign placed in their yard showing them as the winner, and receive a gift certificate to spend within Painesville City.

There is one prize per home in each ward and one business per year.

A nomination form along with a photo of the home/business must be mailed to the Painesville City Improvement Corporation, PO Box 415, Painesville in order for them to be judged. The nomination form MUST be signed by the home/business owner. The nomination forms must be received by the 25th of August.

Additional nomination forms are available at Painesville City Hall and Painesville Recreation and Public Lands. For more information call Economic Development at 440-392-5795.
